Reason for Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

There is none of the prior art of record teach or suggest "an Internet facsimile apparatus for receiving e-mail data and connected to a computer network, wherein an e-mail receiver that receives e-mail data transmitted via the computer network, the e-mail data including a header, document information and image information; a determiner that determines whether or not the document information contains predetermined data indicating that the e-mail data was transmitted from an Internet facsimile apparatus; and a printer that prints the entire received e-mail data when said determiner determines that the document information does not contain the predetermined data, and that prints only the image information when said determiner determines that the document information contains the predetermined data".

This functionality is supported by the specification pages 3-5.

Claims 2-10 depend on claim 1 and are considered allowable on the same basis as the independent claim as well as for the further limitations set forth.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
